We are specialists in strategic marketing.

“It was fantastic to work with a company that really understands what we do, and can communicate this to our key audience groups. I was very impressed with how quickly the team carried out the work, as it was a very tight deadline, and the extremely high levels of client service. They delivered results which exceeded my expectations and really put the N8 Research Partnership on the map”

Sarah Jackson, Director, N8

Drive your business forward.

“Horizonworks’ in-depth knowledge of strategic marketing has been invaluable in shaping the outward facing image of regeNer8 to industry and academia across the UK. Their insights into what customers need have been translated into clear plans that Horizonworks and regeNer8 staff have been able to implement. The success of this approach has been measurable, with a 50% increase in the number of industry members being engaged with regeNer8’s activities over the past year. Marketing campaigns have yielded a good response from our potential audience, from members and suppliers and have been cost-effective.”

Mike Raxworthy, Operations Director, regeNer8

Ensuring your audience views you from the best perspective.

Image is everything. A powerful brand is vital for positioning your business, creating positive perceptions and building a strong profile.

Defining your brand is essential if you want to engage with your customers and create the right impression of your business.

Your brand extends far beyond your logo, it also encompasses everything that you do that connects people to your business, internally and externally. We will work with you on the development of your brand strategy and its implementation.

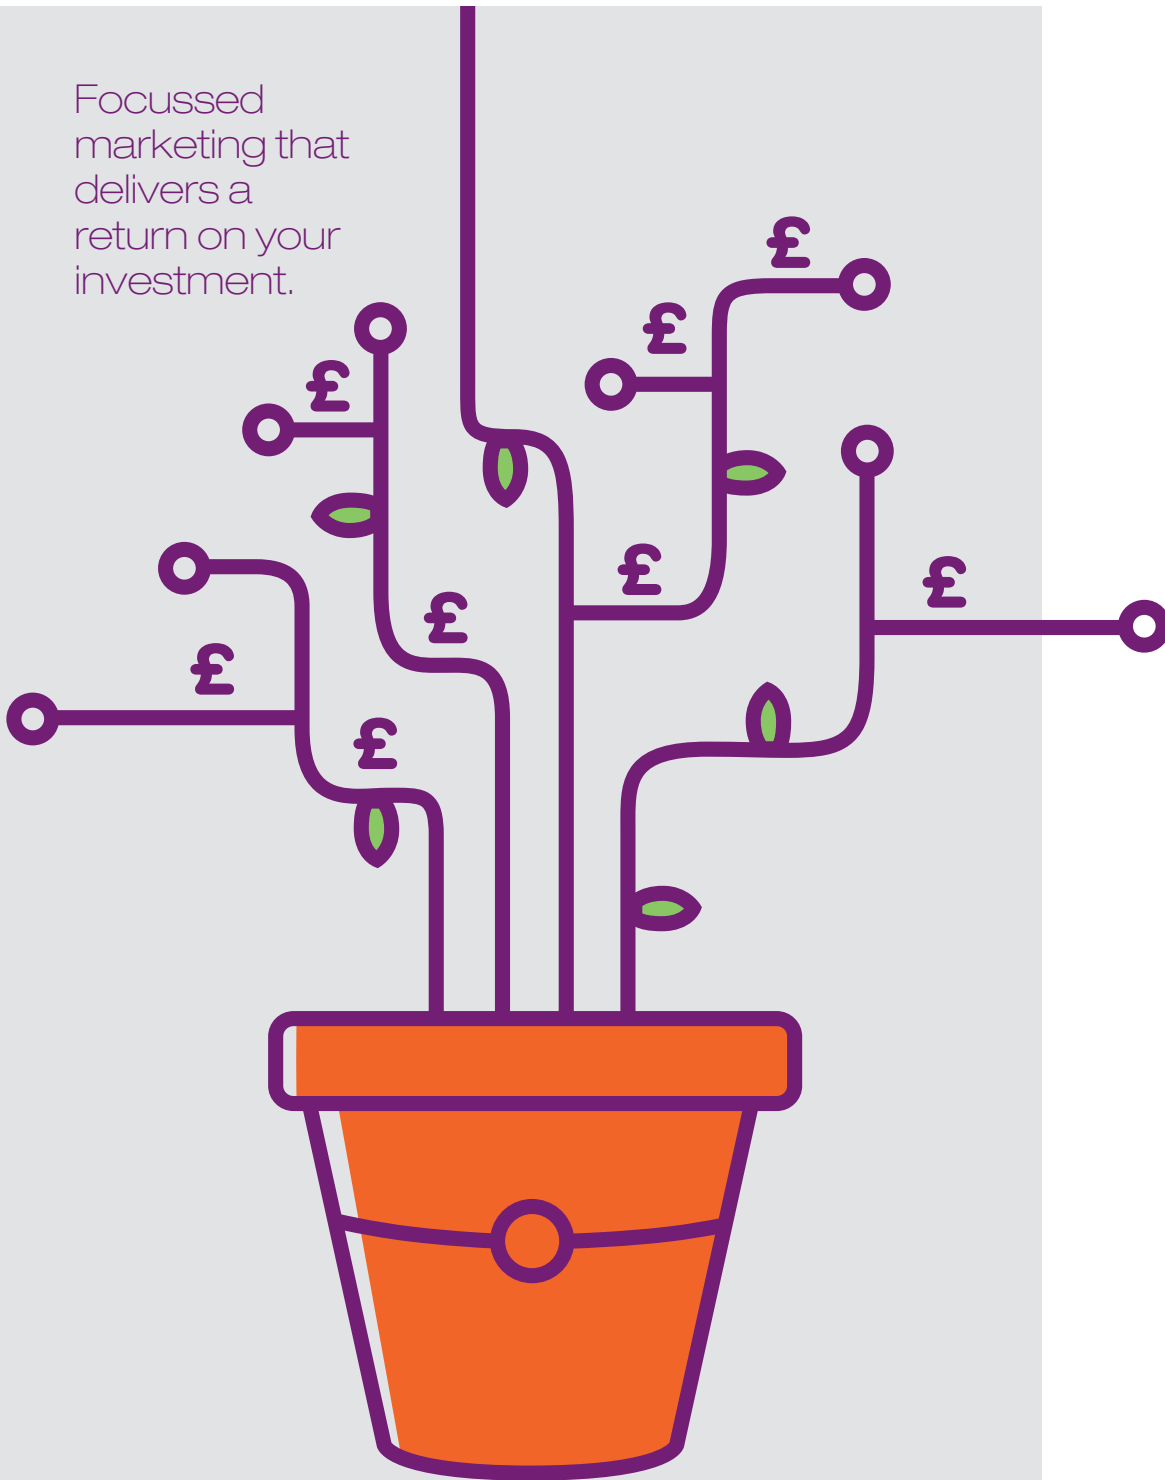

- Brand strategy
- Brand creation & development
- Creative campaigns
- Literature design
- Visual communication
- Campaign management

Let your brand do the talking.

“As a long-established company it is easy to believe that our existing marketing efforts were justified by repeat orders. Horizonworks completed an invaluable communications audit to fully establish our customers' views and perceptions, providing the key information that has allowed us to implement our new brand and marketing communications strategy. Working with Horizonworks gives us access to experts and confidence to move forward rapidly.”

Andy Cordiner, Managing Director, Wearset

Focussed marketing that delivers a return on your investment.

Communicate directly with your audience. A targeted and focussed approach is key to attracting and retaining customers.

Using a wide range of different techniques, we will help you communicate more effectively with your audience, ensuring your brand is at the forefront of their minds. We will help you generate more interest in your business by developing targeted communications and implementing focussed campaigns.

- Campaign management
- Direct marketing
- Online marketing
- Brochures
- Newsletters
- Social media
- Magazines
- Internal communications

Engage, inform, influence and retain.

"Horizonworks worked with us to develop a clear and focussed marketing strategy. They have implemented a range of activities to strengthen our brand, position our business nationally and develop stronger relationships with our clients. The strategic support and marketing activities that the team deliver are fundamental to increasing our profile and awareness across the UK."

Nigel Heath, Managing Director, Easibathe & Easiaccess

Reach new territories and increase your prospects.

Raise your profile and get your message heard. It's all about communicating your business to the external world and engaging with your audience.

PR is an integral part of any marketing strategy and can help you to raise your profile and manage your business' image. It is a powerful tool to gain competitive advantage, open new markets, create a high value for products and services, attract high calibre employees and protect your business in times of crisis.
